CIRCULAR

Class- II to XII

Dear Parents,

Best wishes to you and your ward for the new academic session (2023-24)!

This year we are celebrating 200th Anniversary of eminent Arya Samajist- Swami Dayanand Saraswati, India's G20 Presidency and International year of Millets with special focus and continue our special support to SDGs, promotion of Indian culture and heritage. Our school promotes a culture of innovation as per the latest need of the hour, we expect that you will also nurture skills and innovative spirit of your child.

Kindly note the following details and instructions -

Parent-School Interface:

- DAV Pushpanjali believes that parental involvement is a cornerstone in a child's education. We request you to attend regular PTMs and also meet us with prior information and appointment for any special query.
- Almanac and Academic plans are issued to the students and they should be read thoroughly for effective reference. Fill all the required details in the almanac.
- In order to achieve expected competencies in core academic skills and subjects, we also hold both Enhancement and Remedial teaching sessions for the students.
- For all round development and interdisciplinary culture we plan exhibitions, inter-school competitions and cultural events for our students.
- Students are made part of new clubs, innovative and enterprising culture of the school.

Discipline

- A school is known and recognized by the discipline that is reflected in the behavior of its students, therefore a disciplined regime is followed in our school. CBSE also emphasizes discipline of student to be graded in report cards. Our school Almanac also shows code of conduct to be followed by every student. You are requested to nurture good human values in your child so that they do not display any negative behavior at the school campus with their friends, juniors, seniors, faculty and visitors.

Precautions

- With regard to pick and drop of your ward we have school bus facility and incase you have your own arrangements then do update the details of vans, drivers etc. for proper vigilance.
- Parents should not bring their vehicles in the school premises while dropping their wards and on PTM days vehicles should be parked at Parwana Road.
